

Antonio Rivera, Jr., Marina Ortiz
Hector Cotto, Cesar Ortiz,

Jaime Estades, Candy Vazquez,
John Rojas, Antonio Rivera IV, Luis O. Reyes

"What do these people have in common?"

They believe it is important for Latinos and Latinas in East Harlem/El Barrio to have an independent and progressive voice on the big challenges facing our communities in East Harlem and the city. Housing, rezoning and gentrification, public housing and homelessness, workforce development and employment, community education about health and medical services.

EAST HARLEM / EL BARRIO FORUM a PROGRESSIVE LATINO AGENDA

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9th, 2015
From 6:00 to 9:00 PM

Colón Plaza Community Room
55 East 115th St. (between Park & Madison Aves.)
New York, NY 10035

By public transit: #6 train to 116th St. & Lexington Ave;
walk along 116th St. to Madison & down toward 115th St.

The East Harlem/El Barrio Forum is being sponsored by the Campaign for Fair Latino Representation (CFLR), a citywide organization. The CFLR advocates for the full inclusion of Latinos in NYC government and also for the broader interests of the Latino community. Visit us at: www.latinorepresentation.org and on Facebook.

For more information contact: Luis O. Reyes luisoreyes@aol.com